

PRAISE SERVICE 04/10/2020

1. PRELIMINARIES.

1. Lord, thank You for the wonderful praise service that took place on Mars 1st, 2020 with the confinement and for all those who were present.
2. Lord, thank You for this first praise service which will be on the October 4th, 2020 after a long period of confinement.
3. Lord, thank You for the main burden which baptism into the Holy Spirit.
4. Lord, grant that the information about this praise service will reach to all the members of the Church in Douala.
5. Lord, grant that the family heads, house church leaders, minister to children, disciple makers etc. will ensure that all the saints under their leadership should be informed about the praise service and its burden which is baptism into the Holy Spirit.
6. Lord, create an excitement and joy in the hearts of the saints as they receive the information and let none be absent.
7. Lord, grant the family heads, the house church leaders, ministers to children, disciple makers etc. to help the saints under their leadership to prepare for the baptism into the Holy Spirit during the praise service.
8. Lord, grant the saints to effectively prepare for the meeting on October 4th, 2020.
9. Lord, grant that many brethren will fast to prepare for this meeting.
10. Lord, grant that the brethren will overthrow idols from their hearts before the praise service.
11. Lord, grant that those who must carry out restitution should do so before the praise service.
12. Lord, grant that those who must reconcile should do so before the praise service.
13. Lord, grant us to raise the needed volume of prayer that will move You to act on our favor.
14. Lord, grant that rain will not fall throughout the day of October 4th, 2020.
15. Lord, grant us a continuous electric flow before, during and after the praise service.
16. Lord, grant us to have water in ndogsimbi before, during and after the praise service.
17. Lord, grant that our sound system will function well throughout the praise service.
18. Lord, grant that all the preparations will be done to the satisfaction of Your heart.
19. Lord, impose Your peace and stability all over Cameroon and particularly in the Littoral region.
20. O Father, destroy all the fury of Satan against Brother Martin's life before, during and after the praise service.
21. Lord, be a wall of fire all around our base at ndogsimbi before, during and after the praise service.
22. Lord, propel many saints to the prayer siege on October 2nd and 3rd, 2020 in view to prepare for the praise service.
23. Lord, impart Your burden for revival in the hearts of all the saints as they come.
24. Lord, rend the heaven and descend powerfully during these hours of prayer (pray from the 1st to the 36th hour).
25. Lord, create a hunger for a personal Pentecost in the hearts of each saint of Douala so that he will uproot all the idols in his/her heart before the praise service.
26. Lord, refresh Brother Martin, discharge him of the burdens of the previous ministries in which he was involved (student camp and retreat of ministry assistants), and help him to prepare to lead the meeting of October 4th, 2020.

2. THE LEADERS

27. Lord, grant to those who will lead the praise service to specially prepare for this even.
28. Lord, specially equip them to lead the praise service to satisfy Your heart.
29. Lord, reveal to them in a special the conflicts related to this meeting.
30. Lord, grant them to specially prepare in Your presence for the ministry that they will render.
31. Lord, grant them to be filled with the Holy Spirit and to leave from Your presence to render ministry.
32. Lord, enlarge their hearts to contain the audience that will be present at this meeting as they prepare.
33. Lord, through the power of the Holy Spirit, grant them to adjust to new unexpected situations during the praise service.
34. Lord, grant them Your vision for every category of persons present at the praise service (the saints and unbelievers).
35. Lord, grant them to seek Your blueprint for the preliminary session of the praise service.
36. Lord, lead them in the different aspects of their ministry and help them in the choice of the songs and those who must intervene, the testimonies and all the implications of this phase of the meeting.
37. Lord, weld their hearts to that of the preacher so that there will be only one message during the service.
38. Lord, grant they will be malleable to the Holy Spirit to know when to stop each activity.
39. Lord, render a special ministry to them during the praise service and prepare them for any other intervention they might be called upon.

3. THE SONG MINISTERS.

40. Lord, cloth the singers with Your anointing in a distinct way for the praise service.
41. Lord grant them to see that they are evangelists as a whole and that the same preparation required for the preacher is also required from them.
42. Lord, grant them to prepare individually in Your presence.
43. Lord, grant them to prepare collectively in ministry.
44. Lord, grant them to be in harmony so as to render the ministry as a welded team in the same spirit.
45. Lord, grant them to see their songs must be different from songs to exhort and entertain people.
46. Lord, grant them to understand that the message of songs must have power to convert people and grant them to encounter Jesus.
47. Lord, grant them to be filled with the Holy Spirit and of fire to sing as people who are angry and jealous of their God.
48. Lord, grant them to seek a new anointing for the ministry that they will render.
49. Lord, lead them in the choices of songs.

4. THE PARTICIPANTS.

a) THE SAINTS.

50. Lord, open the eyes of the leaders and the saints to understand that their presence is compulsory.
51. Lord, hover all over the city and move the saints to attend the praise service.
52. Lord, grant the family heads and house church leaders to mobilize the brethren to invite unbelievers, young converts and backsliders to attend the praise service.
53. Lord, provide transport means to all who desire to come so that no one will miss the praise service because of lack of transport

54. Lord, grant that the saints will endeavor so that a large number of sinners will attend the praise service.
55. Lord, bring all our young converts to this praise service.
56. Lord, grant them to ensure that the sick and needy will attend the praise service.
57. Lord, grant them to come to the meeting equipped to impose a spiritual presence.
58. Lord, grant them to be committed to the different aspects (spiritual and practical) during the praise service.
59. Lord, grant them a positive attitude during the praise service and grant them to constantly ask for the renewal of Your presence and Your power in the meeting place and in everything that will take place there.
60. Lord, judge in them all passivity and indifference to the ministry that will be rendered.
61. Lord, create the hunger for God in their hearts while they come to the praise service and bless them with open hearts to benefit from the message and from the entire ministry that will be rendered.
62. Lord, specially judge in the hearts of Your children:
- Sin - superficiality
 - Self-love - love of the world
 - Independence and rebellion - love of the things of the world
 - Falsehood in all its forms
 - And all that which they still compromise with.

b) THE SINNERS

63. Lord, propel a very large crowd of sinners of all ages and classes to this praise service.
64. Lord, propel authorities and all those responsible of the different public service in the city of Douala to this praise service.
65. Lord, bring some unbelievers from quarters where there is no house church to this praise service.
66. Lord, pull sinners from all the quarters in Douala to this service: children, adolescents, adults and aged.
67. Lord, break all resistances in the heart of all those who want to harden themselves and may all be saved.
68. Lord, equally pull backsliders to the praise service and restore them to God and to the Church.
69. Lord, also encounter all the counterfeit believers who in the church in Douala and grant them a radical and total salvation.
70. Lord, grant that the service will be a praise service of full salvation and may we live the accomplishment of Your promises to see heaven on earth in our ministry in Douala.
71. Lord, grant us explosive conversions that will shake the entire city and bring a continuous flow of conversions even after the service.
72. Lord, open large doors, even those that were inaccessible to Your children to proclaim the gospel in Douala and its environs after this service.
73. Lord, grant that our books will be sold in large numbers during this praise service.
74. Lord, show us Your favor, greatness and glory during this praise service in Douala so that this even will be historic.

5. BAPTISM INTO THE HOLY SPIRIT

75. Lord, create a hunger in the heart of Your children to believe that You will baptize them into the Holy Spirit.
76. Lord, remove all feelings of fear, doubt about the Holy Spirit especially in the minds of the unbelievers and young converts.
77. Lord, rend the heavens and descend powerfully to baptize multitudes with the Holy Spirit.
78. Lord, grant that many will speak in tongues for their first time.
79. Lord, may many of the saints who are already baptize be filled with the Holy Spirit.
80. Lord, may many receive new spiritual gifts.

81. Lord, fill Your children with a spirit of joy and gratitude.

82. Lord, grant every baptized and filled saint to be set ablaze for the winning of the lost.

6. HEALING, MIRACLES, DELIVERANCES AND BLESSINGS.

83. Lord, rend the heavens specially over Douala during this praise service and bless us with distinct and manifest miracles as never before.

84. Lord, open the heavens and grant a glorious manifestation of Your power at a high level as never before.

85. Lord, clothe the family heads and leaders with a new anointing and promotion in spiritual power to minister to the sick and to deliver those suffering from demon possession and curses.

86. Lord, liberate Your power a hundredfold on the family heads and leaders and bless them with promotion in the manifestation of spiritual power to perform signs and wonders during this praise service.

87. Lord, grant MAF to know something of Your compassion towards those suffering so as to render a ministry that satisfies your heart and meet their needs.

88. Lord, stretch forth Your powerful hand and perform many more miraculous healings at a level higher than those from previous praise services.

89. Lord, anoint MAF to heal those who have broken hearts and to proclaim Your grace.

90. Lord, show Your compassion in favor of those in need and heal them as You would have done if it were ZTF ministering.

91. O Lord, bless us with same anointing that was on ZTF to heal the sick.

92. Lord, grant that no one sick should go back from this praise service without being healed.

93. Lord, grant it to be like a pool of Bethesda and come to push into the pool all the sick to receive divine healing.

94. Lord, charge the place with Your presence such that some sick people at their arrival will be healed before the ministry of healing.

95. Lord, stretch forth Your unchanging hand of healing on the sick as You did when ZTF was rendering ministry and don't let anybody go back without receiving healing.

96. Lord, grant that many will receive their healing during the ministry of the word before the proper ministry of healing begins.

97. Lord, bless us with a flood of miracles during this praise service.

98. Lord, perform spontaneous miracles and deliverances of people tied by demons for years.

99. Lord, grant that those who will be healed will give You glory by telling what You have done for them such that even after the meeting, praises will still flow up to heaven and grant that some people will be saved because of their testimonies

100. Lord, protect each participant to-and-fro after the praise service.

101. Lord, protect what You would have done in the hearts of Your children.

102. Lord, give us a massive growth in numbers in the Church in Douala as a result of this Pentecost

103. Lord, grant that the Pentecost will mark a new take off in the Church in Douala.

104. Lord, protect the church before, during and after the praise service.

105. Lord, receive all the glory for this praise service.

106. AMEN!!!
